PUBLIC INQUIRY INTO AIRPORT PROPOSALS

PLANS to extend Southend Airport's runway could be delayed after the Government ordered a public inquiry.

The Secretary of State for Transport, Philip Hammond, has called for an investigation into the proposed closure of Eastwoodbury Lane, which was previously approved by Southend Council.

Airport bosses are looking to replace the road with a new link road, between Eastwoodbury Lane and Nestuda Way, to allow a 300m extension of the runway to go ahead.

Managing director Alastair Welch said staff were working to ensure the airport would still be operational for the 2012 Olympics.

He explained: "We have carefully planned the airport's development and we are working with the appropriate authorities over a number of matters and can confirm that we remain on programme to complete the redevelopment in time for the Olympics."

Southend Council is contributing to the cost of upgrading the specification of the new road. A spokesman said a public inquiry had been expected.

Head of planning and transport, Andrew Meddle, explained: "The Secretary of State's decision to call a public enquiry into this matter is not unexpected."

"The airport operators carried out a public consultation over their proposals to close the old road and the Secretary of State is duty bound to call an enquiry in the event of a single objection."

The decision for a public inquiry came following objections from residents and campaign group, Stop Airport Expansion Now.

Campaign group spokesman, Denis Walker, said: "This is the first time that the runway extension development will receive public scrutiny, so it's excellent news for our campaign."

"We are confident that in the cold light of day, the justification for closing Eastwoodbury Lane to enable the runway extension doesn't stand up to scrutiny."

"The economic, environmental and social costs all outweigh any benefit and we look forward to the opportunity to explain this to a Government Inspector."

Driver injured

DANGEROUS: A Shar Pei - also known as a Chinese fighting dog.
Picture provided by The Kennel Club

Shoebury mum jailed over dangerous dog

By Matthew Stanton

A SHOEBURY mother has been jailed after her Chinese fighting dog bit a teenager.

Jessica Gill, 30, of Bunters Avenue, will serve eight weeks in prison after she was found guilty of keeping a dangerous dog.

Southend Magistrates Court heard how her pet Shar Pei, Snoopy, got under a fence before fighting with a bull terrier.

A 15-year-old, who cannot be named for legal reasons, was bitten on the hand as he attempted to break the dogs up.

Magistrate Jill Crowe agreed the animal should not be put down, but banned Gill from keeping a dog for five years.

Gill's defence, Lee Willcockson, insisted his client was not a careless owner.

He said: "This was not a case of Snoopy going on a craze. This is a case of Snoopy getting under a fence and fighting with another dog before biting a young boy who tried breaking up the two dogs.

"We believe the dog suffered from a condition called kennel craze following its time in kennels and the problem will be addressed by neutering and muzzling him.

"Like the dogs she takes on, Miss Gill is a stray and her pets offer her comfort after a childhood of domestic abuse."

The court was told that Gill had previously received an ASBO and was barred from keeping dogs for three years in 2005 because her Rottweiler, Cooper, terrorised other local residents.

Other dogs Gill had previously kept killed cats and 'terrorised children' while on the loose, the court heard.

Gill was re-appearing over the offence, which occurred on April 29 last year, after breaching conditions set down by the court previously.

She was sentenced to a total of 14 weeks, which included one week for failing to appear at court and one week for breaching three conditional discharges. She had previous convictions for common assault and stealing a bicycle. She was also ordered to pay £60 court costs.

Hockley man fined

AN ESTATE agent who assaulted a council officer investigating reports of loud music has been ordered to do 150 hours community service.

Gavin Hockett, of Main Road, Hockley, pleaded guilty to common assault and resisting arrest at Southend Magistrates Court on Thursday.

The 30-year-old was sitting in a black Audi in Western Road, Leigh, at around 1.10am on Sunday, August 15 last year when Roger Trehorne asked him about the reports.

Hockett, who had been drinking, punched Mr Trehorne in the mouth before a struggle took place between the estate agent and a police officer.

Hockett's defence claimed the assault was 'out-of-character' and the defendant, who was living in a flat off the street at the time, had ongoing problems with neighbours.

Magistrate Jill Crowe ordered unpaid work to be carried out and costs and compensation to be paid totalling £205.

Chatterbox Challenge

By Karen Davis

CHILDREN at Southend Central Library have certainly had a busy week.

As well as taking part in the 10th anniversary Chatterbox Challenge, the youngsters also joined a World Record attempt for the largest game of Head, Shoulders, Knees and Toes.

Scores of children sung songs and rhymes to help develop their language skills, and also collected sponsorship to help I CAN - a charity that helps children who struggle to communicate.

Chatterbox Challenge is supported by Openreach, a BT Group Business, and aims to bring UK children under the age of five together to learn, have fun and raise money for less fortunate youngsters.

I CAN chief executive, Virginia Beardshaw, said: "This is a very special year for the Chatterbox Challenge as it is the 10th Anniversary."

RECORD BREAKERS: Kids in Southend attempt to beat the World Record for the largest game of Heads, Shoulders, Knees and Toes.

New rehabilitation centre

➤ speedread

A NEW rehabilitation suite for patients who have lost limbs has opened at Southend Hospital.

Charity veteran, Joyce Long MBE, unveiled the facility in the wound management unit in Balmoral Ward on Tuesday.

The 81-year-old, from Thundersley, invested in £4,000 of adapted equipment for the suite to help aid patients on the road to recovery.

Equipment includes a special couch, foldaway parallel bars and a run of steps to help patients get used to stairs.

Joyce, who has raised around £1.5million since beginning her charity marathon 25 years ago, said: "I am very pleased to be able to help these patients, who face a lot of challenges.

"We need to encourage people to get moving and active again despite the injuries they have faced.

"I want to thank all those who have helped me fundraise through the garden sales."

The hospital offers 'walking school' sessions at its rehab gym.

This service is only available twice a week and the group setting is not always appropriate for some patients.

The majority of amputees are those who have suffered circulatory diseases or who have severe cases of diabetes.

Sue Edwards, tissue viability nurse specialist, said: "The amputee suite is open for inpatients and outpatients five days a week, and the beauty of it is we can offer one-to-one sessions, which have really helped bring on some patients who have made slow progress at walking school.

"We are very grateful to Joyce for all the support she has given us."

OPEN: Joyce Long MBE with patient Sybil Kerring inside the new rehabilitation unit.

Canvey robbery

NEARLY £2,000 worth of goods were stolen from a house in Canvey Island during half-term.

At around 12.15pm on Monday, February 21, a window was smashed at an address in Larup Avenue.

Witnesses report seeing three youths aged 12 to 14 climbing over a neighbouring rear fence shortly after the glass was heard smashing - if you have any information, call PC Jamie Willetts at Southend police on 0300 333 4444.

Talk to your MP

JAMES Duddridge, MP for Rochford and Southend East, will be holding an informal advice surgery at the Castle Inn, Little Wakering, on Saturday.

The surgery will run from 2-4pm and Councillors Mike Steptoe and Roy Pearson will also be in attendance.

Boat stolen

A BOAT has been stolen from Two Tree Island.

The 10ft red, white and blue fibreglass dinghy was taken some time between Monday, February 14 and Tuesday, March 1.

It was a Tepco 'Kongoni' vessel, with an estimated value of £200.

If you have any information about the theft, call PC Anderson at Leigh Police Station on 0300 333 4444.

Concerns raised after Southchurch attacks

FEARS have been raised that there is a pervert on the loose after two incidents involving young girls in Southchurch.

A 15-year-old girl was walking along Victoria Road, near the junction with Shaftesbury Avenue, at 1.50pm on Sunday, February 27, when a man grabbed her wrist and attempted to pull her into an alleyway.

The victim managed to get away from the man and ran to a relative's house nearby.

The suspect is described as an Asian man, in his 20s, of medium build and around 5ft 6in to 5ft 8in tall.

He wore dark blue jeans and a raincoat with the hood up.

Investigating officer, PC Lewis Kearney, said: "I am sure there will have been people milling around the area, heading to Southchurch Park on Sunday afternoon.

"Did you see a man matching this description acting suspiciously in the area? I'd be pleased to hear from you if you have any information."

PC Kearney can be contacted at Shoebury Police Station on 0300 333 4444.

Police are also investigating a possible link between this incident and one that happened at around 6.30pm on Monday, February 14.

In this incident, a 12-year-old girl was grabbed by a man in Southchurch

Road, who tried to kiss her forcibly and made inappropriate comments before she managed to run away.

The suspect was described as a slim Asian man in his late teens, about 5ft 6in tall, wearing a black coat, black trousers and black shoes, carrying a black laptop bag.

Any information about the earlier incident can be passed to PC Dave Thompson at Shoebury Police Station on 0300 333 4444.

Southend blaze leaves two families homeless

By Karen Davis

A BLAZE at the weekend has left two families homeless.

Firefighters tackled the fire in a semi-detached house in Prince Avenue, Southend, in the early hours of Saturday morning.

Divisional Officer Martin Powell, incident commander, said: "The fire was called in by an off-duty officer who managed to get everyone out of the property after raising the alarm."

"The incident involved a large semi-detached house split into two flats and situated at the side of the A127."

"The first crews at the scene were faced with a fully developed fire and they did an excellent job in acting swiftly to prevent spread to the adjoining property."

"Flames were already through the roof and about to break through but thanks to their quick thinking in getting inside the next-door house and holding back flames, that house was saved."

"Unfortunately, the two flats in the fire-affected house were destroyed by fire and collapsed."

"A couple and their two children suffered slight smoke inhalation and shock and were taken to hospital as a precautionary measure."

"A second couple, a dog and two parrots were left in the care of the Red Cross Fire Support team."

"All indications are that the cause of the fire was accidental but we are still completing our work here."

Simon Murdoch, from nearby Hampton Gardens, was out walking his dog at the time and captured the incident on camera.

Flooding grant for fire service

By Karen Davis

ESSEX Fire Service is to receive a grant of £47,152 to help deal with flooding.

The money, from the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (Defra), will be used to buy new equipment and provide training for a powered rescue team.

Announcing the new funding, environment minister Richard Benyon said: "In the event of a large-scale flood, it is important that we can call upon manpower and equipment from a wide range of emergency services and voluntary groups.

"The grant announced today will help to pay for vital flood rescue training and assets such as rescue boats that will be readily available wherever they are needed."

Fifteen organisations - including 11 other Fire and Rescue Services and charities such as St Johns Ambulance and the RSPCA - will receive grants amounting to a total of £820,000.

These grants form the final part of a £1.7m Defra run scheme to enhance local flood rescue capability.

All the equipment bought with the funding will be added to the National Asset Register of flood rescue resources that emergency services across the country can call upon in the event of a major flood.

The successful applicants were announced as the nation's biggest emergency flooding exercise got underway.

Exercise Watermark will test the country's response to extreme river, tidal and reservoir flooding and ensure Essex is prepared to deal with floods.

The project will involve some 10,000 people from ten government departments, 34 local resilience forums, emergency responders, water and energy companies, hospitals and schools.

For the first time, communities will also be taking part - evacuating schools and installing flood defence products to protect properties.

The Government's crisis response committee, COBR, will also be meeting.

Mr Benyon added: "Exercise Watermark stems from Sir Michael Pitt's recommendations following the 2007 floods which caused so much devastation and heartache.

"The Government is committed to implementing those recommendations and working with communities to minimise the risk to people's lives and their livelihoods.

"The events taking place this week will help us to be as prepared as we can be for the dangers caused by floods."

LOYAL SERVICE: Andrew and Paul Bowden, of Altex Glass, present Stewart Fentiman and Paul Gilbert with tankards and family holidays for 20 years' of service. Picture by Mark Cleveland

Staff rewarded for long service

By Karen Davis

A LOCAL business has rewarded two of its employees for their long and loyal service.

Brothers, Andrew and Paul Bowden, run Altex Glass on the Robert Leonard Business Park, Southend.

Last week, they honoured Stewart Fentiman, 36, and Paul Gilbert, 45, who have worked for the company for 20 years.

In a surprise presentation, the company gave the unsuspecting pair tankards and a holiday at Center Parcs to be enjoyed with their families.

Andrew said: "We decided to recognise the loyalty of our workers because it is so rare to have staff stick around for two years, let alone 20."

"Paul and Stewart have proved to be trustworthy and have seen us through the rough and smooth."

Over the years, Paul has worked his way up from the shop floor to become production manager and despite being offered promotion several times, Stewart has preferred to stay hands-on.

"Our only problem now is we seem to have set a precedent as there are quite a few staff who have been here for 16 or 17 years," Andrew added.

"It looks like there will be a lot more presentations to come!"

Inspector joins Twitter

By Karen Davis

A SOUTHEND police inspector is leading the way when it comes to communicating with the public, after launching his own Twitter page.

Inspector Leigh Norris, who oversees policing in central Southend, was looking for a way to let people know what was happening in the town and to spread police-related good news stories.

Mr Norris came up with the idea of entering the world of Twitter and enlisted the help of Essex Police's media department to set up a Twitter page - the first official one of its kind for the Force.

After a fortnight of 'tweeting', Insp Norris said: "Social media is big business which is growing at a rapid rate and, as a police force, it's important that we keep up with society and use a wide variety of media to communicate our messages, rather than just the traditional means."

All aboard the Census bus

By Karen Davis

THE NATIONAL Census will be taking place on Sunday, March 27, and a big purple bus has been in Southend to promote it.

An expert Census team visited the town last week to answer people's Census questions.

Census area manager for Southend, Kevin Nason, said: "It has been a great day here in Southend.

"Lots of people have come along and had a chat with me and other members of the Census team onboard the bus, and we have hopefully answered all their questions about the upcoming Census."

Council leader, Councillor Nigel Holdcroft, said: "This Census is vitally important. If everyone fills in their Census form, then everyone in the borough will benefit.

"All kinds of future funding allocations for education, health, transport and many more public services are made on the basis of the National Census. It is essential Southend receives the funding and investment it is entitled to.

"We would also like to reassure everyone that the Census data is strictly confidential and individual details are not shared with other organisations or Government departments.

"We are very pleased to be working with the Census team and hope that anyone with any questions or worries about the Census will take the opportunity to visit the bus."

Questionnaires began dropping through letterboxes on Monday.

The Census can be completed online at www.census.gov.uk or on paper and posted back in the pre-paid envelope.

Cyclists on the mark

By Karen Davis

AN INNOVATIVE series of bike rides organised by Cycle Southend has won the prestigious London 2012 Inspire Mark.

Southend's Legacy 2012 supports the rides, called Gateway to the Games.

They start from different parts of Southend, and finish at Hadleigh Castle - the scene of the Olympic Mountain Biking events in August 2012.

They are among a small number of projects and events considered outstanding enough to contribute to the Games' lasting legacy, and have thereby won the special recognition of the Inspire Mark. This in turn gives the rides an even higher profile and more funding possibilities.

Last week, Mayor of Southend, Councillor Ann Holland, received the award from Joseph Ballard, Inspire Programmer for 2012, in a ceremony at Southend Bandstand in Priory Park followed by the first of the cycle rides.

Councillor Mark Flewitt said: "Congratulations to Cycle Southend for gaining this terrific achievement. We hope as many people as possible will join in with these most enjoyable rides.

"They are being led by a qualified cycle trainer, and there are a host of other plans being developed for participants to make the most of their destination when they reach Hadleigh Castle.

"The Inspire Programme is entirely new, and the aim is that everyone will be inspired to watch, join in and to take part in the spirit of the Olympic Games and the Paralympic Games."

Future rides take place on:

■ Saturday, March 12 - 9am: Meeting point ReCycle Centre, Brunel Road, Eastwood.

Mostly off-road (via woods in Castle Point, down into Hadleigh).

■ Sunday, March 20 - 9am: Meeting point Blenheim Park. Mostly off-road (via Castle Point woods).

Further rides are due to be arranged during April.

Criminal damage

A DELIVERY driver smashed a vase and punched a door after a birthday meal turned sour.

John Scrafton, of Highlands Court, in London Road, Leigh, pleaded guilty to criminal damage at Southend Magistrates Court on Thursday following an incident on Sunday, February 6.

The 42-year-old had been out celebrating with his partner before an argument took place at an address in London Road, Benfleet, and his belongings were packed.

Scrafton was given a 12-month conditional discharge and was ordered to pay court costs of £105 and compensation of £100.

Norovirus warning

PEOPLE visiting Southend Hospital have been urged to help fight against norovirus.

Hospital bosses warned residents not to come to wards, clinics or the on-site restaurant if they have been in contact with anyone suffering from the 'winter vomiting bug'.

The hospital was forced to close Eleanor Hobbs and Elizabeth Loury wards to new patients because of an outbreak.

For more details, call 01702 435555.

Conditional discharge

A SLOVAKIAN alcoholic has been handed a conditional discharge for breaking a drain off a Southend shop.

Slavko Sotor, of no fixed address, pleaded guilty to criminal damage at Southend Magistrates Court on Thursday after pulling down a drainpipe at 5.30am the same day in Southend High Street.

The 35-year-old was intoxicated during the crime and was caught on CCTV before being arrested.

Sotor was given a 12-month conditional discharge.

Fresh fruit and veg

HOME-GROWN fruit and vegetables will be sold in Great Waking next weekend.

Great Waking Farmers Market will take place on Saturday, March 19, at the Old School, in the High Street between 9am and 12noon.

Award for care home

By Karen Davis

A SOUTHEND care home has won a national award.

The Salvation Army's Bradbury Care Home, in Roots Hall Drive, has been given the Best Practice in Care prize at a national awards ceremony held by The Salvation Army.

The awards were judged by independent panels, with hundreds of Salvation Army social centres and community churches and thousands of staff in the UK and Republic of Ireland eligible for nomination by employees, service users, residents and by local community groups.

The care home, which has 34 residents, was commended for turning a disused bathroom into a 'reminiscence room'.

The room is packed with items from the past, such as a bakelite telephone, old cameras and irons, and old tins and packets from the 1930s, 40s and 50s, so it becomes an area that the residents feel comfortable with.

Bradbury Care Home manager, Lawrence Taylor, said: "I'm chuffed. "Older people have a story to tell; a history."

"The staff have been scouring car boot sales and picking up bits and pieces for the reminiscence room."

"The award recognises that they've been doing good work, and that it's appreciated."

The Salvation Army's director of social services, Major Ray Irving, said: "Our awards in Older People's Services encourage and recognise the very best services and programmes we can offer people who are deserving of the best love and care that is available."

"Even when someone is in their 90s, or even older, they still want to be involved where they can, and it's our privilege to serve residents who have a lifetime of experience to offer."

WINNER: Bradbury Care Home manager, Lawrence Taylor, receives the Salvation Army award from the leader of The Salvation Army in the UK and Ireland, Commissioner John Matear.

Police keen to trace witness

POLICE are appealing for a woman to come forward who is believed to be a key witness to a burglary investigation.

A house in the area of Lakeside Path, Canvey Island, was entered by burglars some time between 6.45am and 7pm on Wednesday, February 23.

The suspects used a garden tool stored in an unlocked container in the garden to smash a conservatory window before entering the house and stealing two iPods and cash from within, with a total value estimated at £450.

Investigating officer, PC Phil McCorkell, said: "Having heard about the burglary through the grapevine, a woman knocked on the victim's door to offer some information but unfortunately the victim did not take her name. If that was you, or if you can assist the investigation in any way, please get in touch."

PC McCorkell can be contacted at Southend Police Station on 0300 333 4444.

Bag stolen

A BAG was stolen from a bus stop in Southend town centre.

A woman in her 30s left her bag on a seat, while waiting at the bus stop in Chichester Road, Southend, near Warrior Square on Saturday, February 26, at about 5.15pm.

When she went to retrieve her bag, it had been stolen. A member of the public found her bag discarded nearby soon afterwards but its contents - including a mobile phone, purse and other small items - had been removed.

The total value of the stolen items is estimated at almost £120.

PC Marc Shaddock was keen to warn other shoppers about this incident.

He said: "It only takes seconds for an opportunist thief to strike, given the opportunity. You can reduce your chances of becoming a victim by keeping a close eye on your possessions at all times and never leaving items unattended, even for the shortest time."

Anyone with information about this theft can contact PC Shaddock at Southend Police Station on 0300 333 4444.

Women to hold rally

A RALLY will be taking place in Southend on Saturday, demanding that more women should be involved in peace-making.

Members of Soroptimist International of Southend-on-Sea and District will be showing support to ten years of little action on Resolution 1325.

The No Women No Peace campaign is calling for at least 40 per cent of UN peace negotiating teams to include women. It is part of the celebrations to mark the 100th anniversary of UN International Women's Day, which Southend and District members will take part in.

They will be taking part in the creation of a 'human poster' to illustrate the campaign.

The rally will be taking place on the Silver Street bridge in Cambridge at 12.15pm.

Margaret Sandercock explained: "We want the UK government to energetically promote and actively support women's participation in peace-building by placing it on the global agenda."

Thames to Tama

By Karen Davis

A NEW arts project was launched last week.

Arts group Metal and Southend Education Trust held the launch of Thames to Tama at Chalkwell Park.

More than 4,600 pupils from 24 Southend schools have contributed to create a stunning installation that illustrates the adventures of the 16th Century explorer, Will Adam, who became the first Briton to set foot in Japan.

Adam grew up and learned his trade as a navigator on the Thames.

He trained with Sir Francis Drake, played a role in the Battle of the Spanish Armada and eventually put together his own fleet of five Dutch ships and set off on a journey of discovery and epic adventure that took him to Japan.

Adam became an honoured Samurai, the right hand man for the Shogun of the day and remained in Japan for the rest of his life.

He is an important historical figure for Japan to this day.

The project was conceived by artist Lee Baker, working with Metal, and has been made possible through Southend Education Trust's (SET) Dare to Dream Programme.

The installation will be open until Thursday, March 24, and forms part of a Festival of Learning.

It celebrates the achievements of a number of SET programmes that have been taking place in schools over the last year.

All libraries across Southend will be hosting a series of free Family History Surgeries in partnership with the Essex Society for Family History (ESFH).

Members of the ESFH will be on hand to assist anyone who wishes to study this subject.

The first session will be held at Friars Library, The Renown, Shoeburyness, between 9.30am and 12pm on Tuesday, March 15.

More events will be scheduled over the coming months.

Party on the pier

By Karen Davis

THERE is to be a party on Southend Pier this Saturday.

The event, which will run from 1-3pm, highlights tourism in Southend past, present and future.

It is part of a national celebration taking place on piers around the country to launch the start of British Tourism Week 2011.

Visitors to the Pier will be able to experience a taste of the borough's calendar of multi-cultural events throughout the year.

Attractions will include English folk dance performers 'Cockleshell Clog', the South Essex Youth Symphony Orchestra, Polish dancers, jazz singers, jugglers, stunt fights with the E15 theatre production group and a fun Pier Quiz.

Refreshments will include Polish sausages and samples of Rossi ice cream.

There will also be a display illustrating the work of Southend Pier Museum.

A special Pier admission price of £1 per person will be charged for the 'Party on the Pier' event.

This price is for the whole day and can be used for a walk and ride ticket or return train fare.

The usual winter walk price of 52p will also be available.

Southend Council's deputy leader, Councillor John Lamb, said: "We are hugely proud of our Pier, which is an international iconic landmark."

"We are delighted to be joining this national celebration of Piers and tourism, in such a dynamic way."

Man prosecuted for racial abuse

A HADLEIGH call worker who racially abused a Chinese police officer during a strip search has been prosecuted.

James Cooper, of Seamore Road, was ordered to pay compensation and costs totalling £350 at Southend Magistrates Court on Thursday after pleading guilty to causing alarm and distress using racially aggravated words and failing to report back to court.

Police arrested the 20-year-old after he was refused entry to Mayhem nightclub, in Southend, on February 13, at 1.30am before swearing at a passing officer.

Cooper's solicitor told the court that her client had acted out of character because he had taken ecstasy for the first time.

She explained that the pill had caused him to foam at the mouth while he was at the police station.

He insulted PC William Cheung with various words, including 'go back to China'.

The court then heard that Cooper failed to appear at court on Tuesday, February 22.

Magistrate Jill Crowe, chair of the bench, was told that the incident was 'out-of-character' and Cooper had since apologised.

Couple sought in burglary

A YOUNG couple are being sought following a burglary in Southend last week.

Burglars entered a home in Trinity Road, Southend, through unlocked rear patio doors between 5pm and 6pm on Thursday, February 24.

They stole electrical items and cash worth a total estimated value of £620.

Witnesses report seeing a man and a woman, both in their late teens, walking along the street drinking from alcohol containers.

A short while later, the same pair appeared from the rear of the burgled property, carrying a bag, possibly coloured white.

They walked off and around the corner into Westbury Road.

The man was about 5ft 10in tall, wearing a baseball cap and a white sweatshirt with dark stripes around the circumference of his torso.

The woman was about 5ft 4in tall with dark brown shoulder length hair.

She wore a red skirt and a dark top and was carrying a red handbag.

Contact DC Carrieann Snell at Southend Police Station on 0300 333 4444.

our verdict

F We went to this place called Papermill Lock before and Heybridge Basin was a lot like it. There was a tearoom, a lock and a long canal with lots of boats tied up along it. There were people working on some of the boats and we watched them for a while. We also looked at boats on the river from the sea wall. There was a kiosk for canal cruises and rowing boat hire but it wasn't open. Mum said we could go back in the summer and have a go.

Joseph Chambers, 13

I really liked Heybridge Basin because it was very peaceful and quiet. It was a really long canal and there was a pathway which we could walk up and down. Some people were walking their dogs and some were riding their bikes. The canal had a lock like the one at Papermill Lock, which lets the boats in and out of the canal. There was a really nice tearoom where we bought ice cream and there were also lots of places to sit and look at the boats.

LIZ WADE and her two boys enjoy a relaxed pace of life during their visit to Heybridge Basin, in Maldon

ONE of the nicest days out we've had over the last couple of years was at Papermill Lock, near Chelmsford, so when a colleague suggested we went somewhere similar, the boys jumped at the chance.

Heybridge Basin, in Maldon, didn't disappoint as it also offered a peaceful place for a stroll along a canal, with plenty of boats to look at and a place to sit and enjoy refreshments whilst admiring the view.

The basin is where the Chelmer and Blackwater navigation meets the tidal Blackwater estuary. It is the place where fresh water merges with salt water and the basin owes its existence to the 13-mile canal.

As Chelmsford expanded in the 1790s, the need for an effective system of transportation from the estuary to the centre of Essex was needed and an Act of Parliament was passed in 1793 to make and maintain a canal.

The basin at Heybridge was dug out so vessels could enter the canal through the sea lock and unload their cargo, and the stretch of canal between Heybridge Basin and Beeleigh was cut out by hand to bypass Maldon because the town opposed the canal as it feared losing trade.

The vessels on the canal have now been replaced with pleasure boats and Heybridge Basin has flourished.

In the spring, the basin and canal attracts plenty of walkers and birdwatchers, while boat owners prepare their vessels for enjoyment on the river over the summer months.

Throughout the summer, the area is a great place to sit and watch the comings and goings along the river and canal, from vessels using the lock to old barges making their way towards the sea.

Autumn is the best time to sit and enjoy the views across the River Northey and Osea Islands, while during the winter the basin offers a peaceful place to wander around before enjoying a bite to eat.

The basin's two pubs, which once served workers and visiting sailors, now cater for tourists and offer plenty of refreshments, as does The Lock tearoom.

The tearoom, which is situated on the sea wall, has both inside and outside seating and offers a range of food from breakfasts and homemade lunches to traditional cream teas.

From March 31 there will be even more to do at Heybridge, when Basin Pleasure Boats begin their canal cruises and rowing boat hire for the season.

Those who want to explore the navigation at their own pace can hire rowing boats on an hourly basis, which can carry up to four people and are suitable for people of all abilities.

The company also offers one-

RELAXED: The boys loved visiting Heybridge Basin.

hour cruise trips up to Beeleigh on the Elver, a 25ft steel narrow-boat, as well as two-hour sunset cruises.

Heybridge Basin is a wonderful place to wander around, thanks to its facilities, picturesque scenes and its village, which retains much of the character of bygone days.

It was definitely worth the hour-long car journey, which we will be happy to repeat during the summer months to enjoy some fun in the sun on the canal.

■ UK CRUISE - sail away on a nine-night cruise around the British Isles and Northern France for £399pp. Cruise departs from London Tilbury on Apr 6 and includes accommodation in a Standard Twin Cabin - call 0845 430 0274 for further details.

VISITING airports can often be stressful, but there's one way to take the hassle out of the whole experience - staying in a hotel.

My partner and I chose to do this at London Heathrow before a recent holiday and why it's taken us so long, I really don't know. Normally we get up at the crack of dawn and either drive to the airport or let the train take the strain, but this time we decided to travel in style.

Heathrow customers are spoilt for choice when it comes to airport accommodation, but we decided to check-in to the budget-friendly YOTEL - a cute and compact hotel from the man behind YO! Sushi.

Despite being just moments from check-in (and well located for other terminals), our room was a world away from the rest of the airport - even though it felt like we'd boarded a flight as soon as we stepped through the door.

TRAVEL FACTS

There are branches of YOTEL at London Heathrow Airport (Terminal 4), London Gatwick Airport and Amsterdam Schiphol Airport. A new branch is scheduled to open in Times Square, New York, in Spring 2011. Rooms can be booked for a minimum of four hours and prices are very competitive. For more information, call 020 7100 1100 or visit www.yotel.com

The 'cabins', as they're more commonly referred to, have been inspired by all things first-class.

Space is at a premium, but that's half the appeal of YOTEL and aside from comfy beds, the rooms have everything you'd ever need from an ensuite shower room to clever storage solutions.

Cabins are available in several guises - Premium (double), Twin (bunk style) and Standard (single) - and all rooms come equipped with flatscreen TVs, free WiFi and 24-hour room service from the 'flight deck' to make you feel like you've taken off already.

Another great thing about YOTEL is that you can book exactly what you need. Whether you want a good night's sleep or just somewhere to freshen up, you can reserve rooms for as little as four hours at a time - a novel concept that will be a winner with travellers.

After spending the night at YOTEL and waking up refreshed and ready to start the day, my partner and I both felt sky high.

Needless to say, we won't be doing any early airport runs from home again...

WHETHER you are looking for the perfect setting for your wedding, outstanding banqueting facilities, or the best place to go for tribute nights or special occasions, then look no further than Holiday Inn, Basildon.

The hotel and function facility specialises in hosting a variety of events from birthdays and anniversaries, to christenings and dinner dances as well as corporate functions.

It is the place to be for a wide range of events including its ever popular Tribute Nights. Up-and-coming evenings include Freddie Mercury on March 25, Elvis on May 20, Cliff Richard on June 24, and Lionel Richie on July 16.

The evenings, which cost just £25 per person, include a delicious three-course meal and a disco until 1am.

Why not celebrate Mother's Day in style with a fabulous three-course meal and tribute entertainment from Kai McKenzie as Michael Buble?

The event, on Sunday, April 3, will be a wonderful way to celebrate Mothering Sunday, and costs just £18 for adults and £10 for children under 12.

Holiday Inn, Basildon, offers an expert service when organising special celebrations or functions, and has outstanding facilities including the Lakeside Suite, which opens out onto the grounds at the back of the hotel.

It also boasts a Garden Room, which is the perfect setting for smaller, more intimate functions.

The hotel's flexibility, experience, attention to detail and superb facilities will ensure your function is in safe hands.

Its wedding service is outstanding with a team of staff dedicated to taking the strain out of your big day.

A function co-ordinator is on hand to show you around the hotel and discuss your individual needs every step of the way, and can also work alongside you, agreeing costs in advance.

The hotel is fully licensed to hold civil ceremonies, so you and your guests can enjoy the whole day in the care of its superb team, and can cater for Wedding Breakfasts for between 30 and 180 guests, as well as evening receptions for between 60 and 250 guests.

Its beautiful grounds provide a perfect photo opportunity, and its brand new Wedding Pavillion - one of only a few in Essex - is now licensed to hold ceremonies and boasts wonderful views of the lake.

What's more, why not make even more of the hotel's facilities by booking one of its rooms which offer preferential rates for bed and breakfast?

For further information about events, weddings and conferences at Holiday Inn, Basildon, call the hotel's Conference and Banqueting Sales Team on 01268 824052 to discuss your requirements.

1st Call
Sales & Lettings

Here's what just a few of our clients say!

When speaking to 1st Call Sales & Lettings, I find them very reassuring and they know what they are talking about, unlike some estate agents. The staff at 1st Call Sales & Lettings seem very experienced and professional.

Richard is the most considerate, efficient, honest and friendly estate agent I have come across and works very hard to ensure satisfaction.

Darren Bradbury, Portfolio Landlord

To Dale and all at 1st Call,

I just wanted to say a big thank you for all your hard work and making this move go through so quickly and smoothly. The next time I move you will be my 1st Call!! Thank you.

Alison, Vendor

Since giving 1st Call our property to manage we are enjoying a stress-free life, knowing every problem will be dealt with quickly and efficiently. They are the letting Fraternity's best kept secret.

Val Smerdon, Landlord

I just wanted to catch up now we have settled in our new address.

I also wanted to say thanks for all your help in our recent sale and purchase. Prior to you, we had reached a point where we thought we would have to take our property off the market and give up on our move. However, thanks to you we did not!

I was most impressed with your contacts out of the area and the way you arranged viewings for people who otherwise may not have seen the house.

You also helped greatly in making sure everything went along smoothly.

I would have no hesitation in recommending you or your company and have already done so to a few friends!

Cheers, I owe you a beer!"

Lee Wilcockson, Vendor & Purchaser

We have recently been dealing with 1st call property, its our first time in renting and have had James Gooding helping us.

He has been helpful and informative with details of the proceedings and has been readily available to answer our questions, which with our first property rental have been very important to myself and my boyfriend.

Natalie Stone, Tenant

I have 2 properties in Southend let out by 1st Call Property and have found them to be impeccable. Being based in London it is important to know that my properties are in good hands locally and 1st call have delivered a professional, friendly and problem free service throughout the process – I couldn't recommend them enough.

Landlord Question

I have just bought a property that has got an existing tenant with an assured shorthold tenancy agreement. Is there anything that I need to do?

Think Property Reply

I am guessing that your own intentions with this property is to continue offering it as a property let. If that is the case, then essentially there is nothing you need to do.

The existing assured short hold tenancy agreement which should have been checked over by your solicitor - will remain valid until the end of its fixed period. Once it ends you can either allow them to continue as a statutory periodic tenancy or you can ask the tenant to sign a new AST.

Now I recommend asking your tenant to sign a new AST at this time, especially if you want to change the rent.

Another important thing that the vendor's solicitor must do before the deal is completed is write to the tenant informing them of this property sale, and that from the date of completion they must pay rent to you.

Similarly, your solicitor will need to agree with the vendor the completion statement which allows for any remaining rent paid in advance and the landlord's interest in the tenant's deposit (this will need to be transferred to you at the scheme where it is held).

Tenant Question

Can you make alterations such as putting up shelves on a wall in rented accommodation?

Think Property Reply

To do so would cause damage to the walls so you do not have the right to do this, however a landlord may agree to you doing so, so it is worth asking. You should ensure you get any permission in writing.

A landlord may also agree to small alterations on the condition that the tenant puts the property to right at the end of the tenancy, for example filling in screw holes and repainting where necessary.

ASK THE AGENT ALAN KIRKMAN

ALAN KIRKMAN is Director of Essex TEAM - part of the UK's largest branded network of independent estate agents, with 50 computer-linked offices across the county and 500 more nationwide. Managing Director of Tudor Estates in Southend. Alan has been an Estate Agent for over 25 years.

Q. I was surprised when the agent I was instructing to sell my property specifically asked to see proof of my identity. What's going on?

A. Unlikely though this might sound, it's actually all to do with the international drive to try and clamp down on the flow of illegal funds around the world – whether it be the proceeds of organised crime, or finance for international terrorism. And it's quite a topical issue at the moment, thanks in part to events in Libya and elsewhere. Indeed, the Office of Fair Trading circulated a special information notice about it only last month.

What it amounts to is this: estate agents – along with many other financial institutions and professions such as banks, solicitors, accountants and financial advisors – are now required by law (namely, the Money Laundering Regulations 2007) to check the identity of any new clients, and their ownership of the property in question. The same applies to any buyer with a suitcase stuffed full of used fifties. In practice, the rules are fairly simple:

First, we have to confirm your identity – so we need to see an item such as a passport or a driving licence.

Second, we need to see something official like a council tax or utility bill containing both your name and address. This document must be less than 3 months old. Mobile phone bills aren't acceptable.

Agents are also required to satisfy themselves that the information is accurate. This process may include verification through authorised third party sources. Why? Because, if the information subsequently turns out to be false, and the money involved in the property is somehow tied up with organised crime or terrorism, then the agent would need to be able to prove that he or she had taken all reasonable steps to check. Otherwise, it could mean a substantial fine or even imprisonment. Needless to say, if the agent does have any suspicions, then these must be reported to the Serious Organised Crime Agency.

Is this yet another example of Big Brother in action, of the state prying even deeper into our lives? Not when you consider what is potentially at stake. However, it's still one more thing we as agents have to deal with. So, spare us a thought!

Essex-based developer launches new homes in London

Housebuilder Weston Homes has launched a new luxury waterside housing development in Uxbridge, North London. Located between the River Colne and Grand Union Canal, the King's Island scheme was unveiled to the public last weekend following a ceremonial launch on 2nd March 2011 overseen by the company's founder and chairman, Bob Weston, and Sharron Davies, the champion swimmer turned media figure and television commentator.

The private gated development, built on the site of the William King Flour Mill, with views over the waters of the river and canal, will feature a wide selection of apartments and townhouses.

The Victorian mill building is set to be refurbished and converted to apartments. Two new apartment blocks will also be created. In all, the finished scheme will comprise 127 one- and two-bedroom apartments and 24 new and converted three- and four-bedroom townhouses.

Prices range from £180,995 to over £700,000.

Bob Weston says: "There is a continuing demand for family homes in the UK. King's Island provides a perfect setting for families, which include some of the finest luxury finishes available on the market today. The new-build apartments offer a blend of modern architecture and sympathetic renovation and a level of comfort and style that will last long into the future and are ideal for couples or downsizers."

Weston Homes, named What House? Housebuilder of the Year 2010, is renowned for the high level of standard specification in all its new homes.

The impressive specification of the four-bedroom show home includes: en-suite wet-rooms to the two main bedrooms; ceramic stone floors and underfloor heating feature on the ground floor; a high-quality kitchen fully equipped with fitted, name-brand appliances and with a separate utility room; a delightful large deck overlooking the weir, accessible by space-saving concertina doors from the kitchen and living room; and a secluded roof deck and study sharing the top floor with the master bedroom suite, complete with its wet-room and dressing area.

The new apartments will have a balcony or terrace accessible from the open-plan kitchen/dining room and all of the two-bedroom designs benefit from an en-suite to the master bedroom in addition to the main bathroom. Allocated parking is also provided.

With relatively few new homes developments in Uxbridge on the market, interest in this scheme is expected to be high. As well as local residents, the company is targeting overseas and expat investors searching for new homes in London's suburbs which can provide them with steady tenancy and good returns.

With an established team which boasts extensive knowledge of the property market and with its current trends and therefore can confidently guide you through the whole process.

SELLING

For those who wish to sell we can discuss the best way forward in presenting your property to gain either the best price, quickest sale, the most discreet sale or to simply test the market. We can discuss how to promote the property, with our Wide angle photography for impressive presentation, which internet sites to expose the property onto for the maximum coverage and how best to gain that "London" buyer.

LETTING

For both the first time Landlord or the experienced seasoned investor we would suggest that we may be able to offer a more pro-active service. We have a very large number of registered tenants looking for all styles of property from large 5 bedroom property to studio flats. We are able to offer "Rent warranty" if required, Epc's and Gas safety reports. We can offer you tenant finders service only or full let and management service. In addition we offer very competitive management fees from as little as £40 per month. As a special promotion for all new instructions we are currently offering the "first months management fee FREE".

Make your Qash go further

by Andy Enright

PERHAPS we should have seen vehicles like the Qashqai coming a while back when Nissan decided not to replace the Almera with anything directly comparable.

That was one of the first signs that the Japanese company was ditching the traditional family hatch market and moving into producing more 'lifestyle' choices amongst its vehicle portfolio.

The slow-selling Primera wasn't doing much for the company's bottom line and so it has devoted its attention to cars like the Qashqai, the 370Z, the Pathfinder and the X-Trail. Financial reports look like that's been a smart move.

The 2.0-litre dCi engine generates 150bhp at 4,000rpm and a healthy 320Nm of torque at 2,000rpm. Co-developed by Renault and Nissan, the engine is decently refined yet not slow to deliver its mid-range performance.

Nissan hasn't skimped when it comes to transmissions, the Qashqai 2.0 dCi being supplied with either a six-speed manual box or a six-speed auto option.

The Qashqai drives in an assured manner on the road and feels more like a conventional family hatchback than a 4x4 with its supple suspension and absence of body roll. The latest cars have revised suspension settings to improve things further in this area and refinement that's boosted by multi-layer insulation in the front bulkhead and a special soundproof windscreen.

The ALL-MODE 4x4 system is available on the 2.0-litre vehicles with the others sending drive to the front wheels only. This is an electronic system which automatically engages four-wheel drive the moment a loss of traction is detected.

Nissan makes no bones of the fact that the Qashqai is anything but an off-roader, citing its lack of ground clearance. What precludes it from tackling rutted tracks makes it a better car on the blacktop, the hunkered down centre of gravity giving a nimble feel.

The Qashqai, in reality, is somewhere between an all-wheel drive-orientated family hatchback and a road-orientated compact 4x4 and it incorporates MPV-style practicalities as well. Like many rivals, the Qashqai offers the choice of a two or a four-wheel-drive platform, the front-wheel drive model being perfectly adequate for 95 per cent of customer's requirements.

In case you were wondering where the wacky name came from, it's pronounced 'kash-kai' and is named after a desert-dwelling nomadic tribe from South Western Iran.

For larger families, there's the option of a Qashqai+2 seven-seater model. Here, the doors have been redesigned and the side windows are bigger, as is the rear tailgate window, making the back feel anything but claustrophobic.

Trim levels run from Visia through Acenta to N-Tec and Tekna but there are quite a dizzying range of variants depending on whether you want auto or manual gearboxes, five or seven seats, sat nav or just a dog eared A-Z or whether you want to fork out for all-wheel-drive or stick with power going to the front pair of wheels only.

Even the Visia models are well appointed with ESP stability control, 16-inch alloy wheels, a CD stereo with four speakers, Bluetooth compatibility on the audio system, air conditioning and a drive computer.

Trade up to Acenta and you get features such as rain sensing wipers, cruise control, rear parking sensors, a better stereo and 17-inch alloys. N-Tec gets you the Nissan Connect sat nav system while Tekna models add leather upholstery, funky interior mood lighting, heated front seats and xenon headlights.

There's little doubt that the Qashqai will find ready buyers when the time comes to sell as it seems to have struck a chord with British customers looking for a socially responsible alternative to the usual 'Chelsea tractor.' The front wheel drive cars are in even hotter demand than the four-wheel drive models as a result.

The Qashqai 2.0dCi is a brilliant city scoot, being tall enough to spot a gap, narrow enough to fit through it and short enough to park once you get where you're going. It's also decently economical and doesn't draw the wrong sort of attention.

I can see why Nissan sell every one of the 700 they make per day. It's a vehicle that's judged the public mood perfectly.

Scrap Cars

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).
Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

YellowAdvertisermotoring news*Take a break

A T first I thought it was one of those cute but useless features that vehicle designers come up with when they're having a dry month.

The Mercedes E-Class I was driving would, when it deemed fit, flash up a picture of a coffee cup and ask 'Time for a break?' in the centre of the speedometer.

The first time it happened I was barreling along the autobahn between Cologne and Aachen, attempting to snap the virtual speedo needle off the end of the dial.

With eyes on stalks waiting for an errant Volkswagen Polo to edge into the outside lane, a double mochacino was about the last thing on my mind.

Since then it's happened a couple of other times, the Attention Assist system monitoring the steering angle, the length of time you've been behind the wheel and comparing these variables against a computer program in charge of judging driving behaviour. And it's been bang on the money each time, realising when I was getting drowsy and wagging its finger at me.

It's been estimated that drowsiness causes around 30 per cent of all fatal accidents on European roads, which is more than drink and drug-related fatalities combined but until recently, there has been very little that could be done to monitor this situation.

In fact, it's fair to say that many of the latest innovations in vehicle technology have, if anything, contributed to reducing the amount of attention we pay to our surroundings.

Vehicles with seats that you sink into, that keep the interior climate warm and draught-free and feature suspension softer than your duvet are always going to make you feel relaxed and stress-free. Is there a case that they are now making things a little too relaxing? Taking away the intellectual stimulation of driving?

Mercedes' Attention Assist system is certainly a step in the right direction, but the little coffee cup and the chime are perhaps a little too subtle.

I'm thinking Ace of Spades at full volume on the stereo, all the windows lowered, the massage seats switched to Turkish wrestler mode and some pungent odour sprayed from a nozzle in the steering wheel.

I can't really see Mercedes buying that idea but perhaps we need to wake up to the fact our cars are evolving much faster than we are.

Scientist

Chips anybody? The silicon variety of course

NOW don't be scared. The world of science gets a bad press from those who don't understand it. But you don't need to be a bushy-haired boffin to enjoy a fascinating and richly rewarding career in science.

In reality, science is simply the way we understand the natural systems that make up our world. It's divided into many categories. Most stem from the core science subjects – maths, chemistry, biology and physics.

There are four main career areas: research and development; analysis and investigation; education and the media, and administrative positions.

Research and development scientists set up new products and industry processes, or scale up lab procedures to full-scale manufacture.

Scientists involved in analysis and investigation can be involved in diagnosing or treating disease or illness; measuring levels of pollution or environmental damage and looking at ways to increase environmental protection; providing backup to criminal investigations; weather forecasting or analysing, and monitoring environmental disasters.

Some scientists teach their subject at university or college, others are involved in designing materials for use in broadcasting, schools or museums.

Information scientists are generally involved in helping formulate policies and are often wheeled on as honorary boffs to sit and advise committees.

Most importantly, don't get scared off by science's reputation. As TH Huxley said, "Science is nothing more than trained and organised common sense."

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

- Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
- 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
- To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.
- The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
 - (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
 - (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
 - (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
- The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
- Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertiser will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
- The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
- Whilst every care is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
- All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
- Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
- The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
- Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
- All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
 - (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
 - (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
- When an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
- All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
- All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
- The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
- The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
- Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.
Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
- Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
- Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.
Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication.
Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Clutch of medals won by judo competitors

Judo

SOUTHEND Judo Club won a haul of medals in the Ipswich Senior and Masters Judo Championships.

The event, which attracts top competitors from all over the UK is high on the list for the club, with three full-time and two part-time members taking part.

These included Sarah Wood, who is blind, club coach Nick Collins and club welfare officer Mark Stenhouse.

Gold medals were won by Nick and Mark in their contests, while Sarah put in an amazing performance to win silver.

Her coach, John Flanagan, said: "It must be remembered that Sarah only has 18 months judo training under her belt and has to fight sighted opponents."

"She has also asked for more ladies to give judo a go, rather than all those butch men!"

The club are offering judo free for a month for any female aged 14 or over when they present this article to the club.

For more information, call John Horrigan on 07899 961341 or visit the website at www.southendjudo.co.uk MEDAL: Judo competitor Sarah Wood won silver.

Jaded Blues go down to first away defeat in 2011

Southend United

SOUTHEND United suffered their first away defeat in Npower League Two since December, going down 2-1 at Morecombe on Saturday.

The Blues, who are eyeing a play-off spot, fell behind to a Chris McCready header on 28 minutes.

Barry Corr equalised through the penalty spot five minutes into the second half for Southend, but Stuart Drummond headed in what proved to be the winner just after the hour mark, as set-pieces proved Southend's downfall.

Blues boss Paul Sturrock said: "I think disappointed is the word I would use.

"We looked very leg weary and after the first ten minutes we were just waiting for Morecombe to score."

Southend started sluggishly and nearly went behind after seven minutes when Shrimpers keeper Rhys Evans produced a superb save to keeper out James Spencer's header.

Fellow strike partner Danny Carlton headed wide as Southend struggled to get a foothold in the game.

Morecombe finally got the breakthrough when McCready headed home from eight yards from Laurence Wilson's corner.

It was nearly two seven minutes later when a in-swinging free-kick took a deflection off Chris Barker, but Evans managed to tip it over the crossbar.

Southend nearly went into half-time level when Louie Soares superb volley was tipping onto the crossbar by Shrimps keeper Barry Roche.

Five minutes into the second half and Southend were level when Anthony Grant was bundled to the floor by Kevan Hurst, and Corr stepped up to score his 13th league goal of the season.

But the Blues were again exposed at a set-piece when Wilson's free-kick was met by Drummond to head home on 63 minutes.

It could have been three four minutes later when Carlton's rasping drive hit the crossbar.

Southend huffed and puffed but they could not breakdown Morecombe's defence.

■ The Blues hosted Gillingham last night (Tuesday), before travelling to Lincoln City - managed by former boss Steve Tilson - on Saturday, kick-off at 3pm.

Pressure mounts up for City and Thurrock with defeats

Non-League Football

THE WHEELS seem to be coming off Chelmsford City's promotion charge in Blue Square South after the Clarets suffered another defeat, this time losing 2-1 at Eastleigh on Saturday.

City have not won in the league since Valentine's Day, and are losing momentum in their battle to gain a play-off place.

Tom Jordan put Eastleigh ahead after 10 minutes, before Jamie Slabber added a second seven minutes after the break.

Although Dave Rainford pulled a goal back through the penalty spot, the Clarets recent form will be a cause for concern for head coach Glenn Pennyfather.

Thurrock have been dragged back into the relegation fight after losing 3-1 at fellow strugglers Dorchester Town.

Fleet took the lead through Kenny Clark after six minutes, but goals from Reece Connelly and Chris Flood (2) completed the comeback for Dorchester.

Billericay Town slipped out of the play-offs in Ryman League Premier after suffering a shock 1-0 defeat at lowly Hastings United - Ollie Rowe heading in the goal.

Concord Rangers slipped to ninth after losing 2-1 at Cray Wanderers who move above them.

Tony Dolby and Leigh Bremner put Crays ahead in the second half. Tony Stokes pulled a goal back for Concord but it was not enough.

AFC Hornchurch moved up to seventh with their third consecutive victory. Martin Tuohy's fourth minute goal was enough against relegation strugglers Croydon Athletic.

Canvey Island remain in the play-off chasing pack after a comfortable 3-1 win over Horsham.

Rob King, Jason Hallett and Alex Rhodes saw Gulls in control before Jamie Cade's consolation for the visitors.

Aveley boosted their battle against the drop with a 2-1 victory at Hendon.

Tony Russell and Danny Slatter put the Millers 2-0 up in the first half, and despite Brian Haule quickly pulling a goal back for Hendon, Aveley hung on.

It's all square at the top of Ryman League Division One North, with East Thurrock United level on points behind leaders Needham Market.

The Rocks won 1-0 over Maldon & Tiptree thanks to Max Cornhill's 69th minute header.

Near neighbours Grays Athletic did East Thurrock a favour by drawing 1-1 at Needham.

Sam Newson put the Marketmen ahead after 14 minutes, but Grays equalised thanks to Dean Pennant's strike six minutes after the interval.

Brentwood Town are up to third following their 1-0 victory over Potters Bar Town thanks to Darren Blewitt's goal on the hour mark.

Heybridge Swifts drew 2-2 with play-off chasers Enfield Town after falling behind 2-0.

Liam Hope and Leon Osei put Enfield 2-0 up inside half hour, but Swifts battled back thanks to goals from Chris Bryan and Luke Callander.

Waltham Abbey suffered a disappointing 1-0 home defeat to Harlow Town - Getro Kilapi grabbing the only goal.

Romford's play-off hopes are fading, losing 3-0 at home to relegation battlers Tilbury, who moved ten points clear. Harry Cook, a Ben Turner own goal and Steve Good did the damage.

Bottom side Waltham Forest drew 0-0 with Great Wakering Rovers, while Forest's landlords Ilford maintained their two point advantage above them following their 2-2 draw at Thamesmead Town.

Nick Davis's opener for Ilford in the second half was cancelled out by Adam Bolle's penalty.

Clydie Roberts restored Ilford's lead but Raphael Momodu scored in the last minute.

Redbridge are nine points clear of Forest after picking up another 1-1 draw, this time at home to Ware. Luke Marshall's 78th minute goal looked good enough for Ware, but Kevin McLeod levelled on 88 minutes with a free-kick.

Barking lose lead while Southend earn good win

BARKING lost the lead at the top of National League One despite winning 20-23 at Blaydon on Saturday.

London Scottish won 29-11 over Cinderford but picked up a bonus point to move ahead of Barking. The Eastenders had to come from behind to pick up victory, and were made to pay from missed conversions from Blaydon.

Converted tries from Barking's Scott Shaw and Simon Barber made it 7-7 inside the first 14 minutes.

But despite Adam Armstrong's penalty, Blaydon moved ahead thanks to unconverted tries from David Williams and Jason Smithson.

Armstrong and Matt Mellish exchanged penalties to make it 20-16, before Tom Cobb ran over the vital try for Barking on 66 minutes, converted by Armstrong.

Southend maintained fourth place in National Two South with a 18-26 win at Clifton.

Tries from Mike Stanley and Mark Billings, plus kicks from Andrew Frost secured the win. In London One North, Westcliff worked hard for their 13-24 win at Letchworth Garden City, while Chingford suffered another defeat, losing 12-8 to in form Eton Manor.

Thurrock lost out 16-3 at Colchester, while Brentwood came out on top in an exciting match against bottom side Stevenage Town, winning 38-29. Woodford had no answer to Sidcup in second, losing 47-0.

Rochford Hundred maintain a point lead over Braintree in London Two North East following their 24-0 victory over Saffron Walden.

Romford & Gidea Park remain third with a 15-17 victory at Old Streetonians, while Chelmsford are just a point behind following their 36-17 win over Sudbury.

Canvey Island saw off Beccles by 19-11.

Essex FA

Nominate your unsung heroes

NOMINATIONS are needed for the unsung heroes of Essex grassroots football.

Essex County Football Association (FA) is hosting the second annual FA Community Awards, presented by McDonald's, and are looking for nominations for the eight award categories.

They are:-

■ Outstanding contribution to Community Football Award.

■ Volunteer of the Year.

■ Young Volunteer of the Year.

■ Coach of the Year.

■ FA Charter Standard Community Club.

■ FA Charter Standard Development Club.

■ FA Charter Standard Club of the Year.

■ FA Charter Standard League of the Year.

Phil Sammons, chief executive of Essex FA, said: "Grassroots football is hugely important to the development of football at all levels in this country."

"Whether you are a referee, coach or player your first experience of the game will be in the grassroots game but without the hard work dedication of our volunteers, grassroots football would cease to exist."

Nominations close on Friday, March 18, and a shortlist of candidates will be selected by a judging panel which includes Sir Geoff Hurst, Sir Trevor Brooking and members of the national media.

The winners will be announced at the FA and McDonald's Community Awards dinner, held at Wembley on the day of the Community Shield on August 7.
